I would love Deckerdence for as my party venue -but what are my options for location?

We can host your party at our events field in North Warwickshire - or as a mobile venue, we can bring Deckerdence to you. Before confirming your booking we will come & check out the land and make sure everything will be ok!

I really want an outdoor party vibe - but I don't want festival portaloos! What are my options?

With our classic and ultimate packages, you have a luxury toilet unit with porcelain toilets, running water, mirrors - everything an indoor venue gives you.

Do I have to use your suppliers?

No, we are happy to work with the suppliers you choose. Once you have booked them, we will work with them on the logistics & requirement side. We will send them details of our location, arrange their power requirements and check over their documentation.

Do you have any supplies you recommend?

Yes, with over 20 years of experience in weddings, parties and events - we have the best suppliers! Anyone we recommend to you is done on trust, not commission! We recommend them because we know them, like them, trust them, & have worked with them - it's not about them paying us to recommend them to you!

I've seen hotels that have marquees - why are you different?

Marquees at hotels tend to be just a larger space for traditional set-planned weddings and events. We specialise in outdoor events and weddings and have over 20 years of experience. Freedom - as an independent venue you can have a choice of drinks served, outdoor activities such as firepits & fireworks.

Why is it so hard to compare companies pricing for outdoor venues and marquees?

Many companies only include the core elements such as structure and furniture. They don't include or offer toilets, generators, or land hire - with Deckerdence we clearly list everything included in each package.

After booking you can, of course, add in drinks packages, and glamping options - but with our packages all the infrastructure and staffing are included.

I want Deckerdence for my Party- what's the next step?

Great news! The next step is to let us show you around virtually You can quickly and easily book a virtual viewing so we can chat through your party plans.
